Alaska Railroad to Provide State Fair Service

The Alaska Railroad Corporation (ARRC) will provide weekend service to the Alaska State Fair this year. The trains depart from the Anchorage depot at 10 a.m. on August 23, 24, 30 and 31, as well as September 1, arriving in Palmer at noon. Trains will depart Palmer at 7:15 p.m. each day, arriving back in Anchorage at 9:15 p.m. Food service will not be available.

“We’re happy to provide folks with a way to avoid the traffic and road construction,” said Susie Kiger, ARRC Manager of Sales & Marketing. “Seats are limited, so book soon!”

Ticket prices, which include admission to the fair, are $45 for adults, $42 for seniors (age 60+), $23 for children (age 6-12), and $18 for toddlers (age 2-5, who enter the fair for free). Children under age two ride free.

Those wishing to purchase tickets or get more information may contact railroad passenger reservations at 265-2494 or 1-800-544-0552, or on the web at www.AlaskaRailroad.com.
