The Alaska Railroad Rolls out the “Diner” Train

Chef Al Levinson to cook up a Turnagain Arm treat

ANCHORAGE, Alaska – On April 21, the Alaska Railroad, along with celebrity chef Al Levinson, will serve up a sumptuous assortment of first class cuisine for the first ever Alaska Railroad’s “Spring Diner Train with Chef Al.” Riders will board the railroad’s custom made first-class double-decker dome cars in Anchorage for a gourmet cruise along Turnagain Arm, round-trip, to Portage.

Chef Al Levinson, owner of the Kincaid Grill and executive chef of City Diner, Anchorage's hottest new restaurant, will serve up a number of tasty dishes throughout the trip. Diner Train guests will be tempted with an assortment of tantalizing hors d'oeuvres, a savory main course and of delectable dessert, topped off with a view no restaurant in Alaska can match.

“The Alaska Railroad is always looking for new and innovative trains that provide a truly Alaskan experience,” said Susie Kiger, Director, Passenger Sales and Marketing. “With Chef Al in the galley preparing a signature dish, Diner train riders are in for a real treat. We plan on complimenting his first class meal with first class service on board the best train in the world.”

You won’t want to be left standing at the station for this ride. Call (907) 265-2494 for reservations or you can book tickets on-line at www.alaskarailroad.com.
