Alaska Railroad Corporation Hosts Anchorage Open House

Anchorage, AK-The Alaska Railroad Corporation (ARRC) is opening its doors and inviting the public to an Open House Saturday, May 6 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Alaska Railroad's Historic Anchorage Depot (411 W. First Avenue).

"This is a great way to usher in another Alaskan summer," said Patrick Gamble, ARRC President and CEO. "Each year we invite Alaskans to come down and take the kids for a ride on the train, see the equipment and talk with the Alaska Railroad employees. This is our chance to highlight our employees, the Railroad, and what we can do for Alaska residents."

Designed for kids and kids at heart, this annual event is organized and "powered" by Alaska Railroad employee volunteers. Events include:

- Free round trip train rides from the Historic Depot.
- Free popcorn and refreshments.
- Railroad "giveaways," for railroad fans.
- Hot dogs and candy bars sold by the Government Hill Elementary School PTA to raise funds for their organization. Government Hill is an ARRC School-Business Partner.
- Intricate model railroad displays.
- Passenger, maintenance and other railroad equipment exhibits.
- Updates on current and planned capital projects.
- Live music from Elmendorf's Air Force Band of the Pacific, The Greatlanders.
- Historic display and items from the McCarthy Centennial exhibit.
- Door prize drawings for complimentary rail trips to Denali or Seward on the Alaska Railroad and for a framed 2006 Alaska Railroad poster.

ARRC is a self-sustaining, state-owned Corporation that operates without state subsidy, serving a number of rail belt communities from Seward to Fairbanks.
