ARRC Opens Mainline Track

ANCHORAGE, Alaska – Alaska Railroad (ARRC) crews have opened the mainline track between Talkeetna and Denali National Park. Freight and passenger service has resumed between Anchorage and Fairbanks.

The northbound and southbound Denali Star with service between Anchorage and Fairbanks will be leave on schedule. Delays of up to one hour are expected due to continued clean up efforts.

The ARRC will also run a special Hurricane Turn passenger train offering flag stop service between Talkeetna and Hurricane on Monday, Tuesday and possibly Wednesday. This train will run a normal schedule but minor delays may occur.

Passengers with questions can call (907) 265-2494 or Toll Free at 800-544-0552.
